

Since 1990 Youth Enhancement Services, Inc. (YES) has provided alternative education and enrichment solutions for close to 3,000 Metro Atlanta at-risk youth.

The core programs promote education, community impact, cultural enrichment and healthy lifestyles in an interactive learning environment free of many community and social obstacles that contribute to students leaving traditional school.

YES provides services at 2 sites: Downtown Atlanta and East Point

YES 3-6-9 Work Ready

GED Tutorials

Financial Literacy

Character Development

Resume Building

Post- Secondary Enrollment

On-the-job Training/Internships

Life Skills

Healthy Lifestyle Education

87% of 2015 YES GED graduates enrolled in a post-secondary institution

Snapshot of YES Success

89% of program participants earn their GED within the 3-6-9 Model

98% of program participants report increased self-esteem

95% of program participants report increased positive social interactions

■ 3-6-9 Model Graduates
 ■ Increased Self-Esteem
 ■ Positive Social Interactions

2015-2016 Budget: $400,000

65% - Direct Services and Program Expenses
35% - Operation and Administrative costs

$5,000 funds costs for a program participant during an academic year

YES staff consists of the Executive Director, Operations & Curriculum Specialist, Program Director, Community Outreach Specialist, Family Advocate, Peer Advocate, Marketing Consultant and 6 Site Instructors