

Youth Enhancement Services, Inc.

"Empowering Tomorrow's Leaders Today"

From YES GED Graduates to College Scholars

Yolanda Wimbley

- YES GED Graduate 1995
- A.S.—Point University, Atlanta, GA (2014)
- Dekalb Technical College—Phlebotomist Certification (1997)
- Practicing Phlebotomist for 16 years
- Single mother of four. Her son Deontez Wimbley, is a graduate of Claflin University presently pursuing a master's at Boston University

Miriam Kirby

- YES GED Graduate 2010
- A.S. - Atlanta Metropolitan State College (honors) – Atlanta, GA (2014)
- B.S.W. - Georgia State University (honors) – Atlanta, GA (5/2016)
- Currently pursuing M.S.W. at Georgia State University
- Single mother with a young son, Marvin

Kikachukwu "Kika" Okolo

- YES GED Graduate 2011
- A.S. in Chemistry (honors) - Georgia Perimeter College, Atlanta, GA
- B.S. in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology – University of Georgia, Athens, GA (12/16)
- Taking MCAT in summer 2016
- Will be pursuing an MD/Ph.D in 2017

David Booker-Earley

- YES GED Graduate 2013
- Georgia Perimeter College (Atlanta, GA)
- Pursuing degree in Mechanical Engineering at Georgia Institute of Technology (Georgia Tech) (honors)

Jamie Gibby

- YES GED Graduate 2015
- Currently pursuing Business Administration at Georgia Military College, Fairburn, GA
- First in his family to attend college

Rontavius Stovall

- YES GED Graduate 2015
- Works as Peer Advocate at YES and Residential Assistant at a local group home for young men
- Currently pursuing Business Management at Atlanta Metropolitan State College (honors)
- Dropped out of high school due to homelessness
- First in his immediate family to attend college